“ Dear Thomas family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Verlie Edward. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Verlie Edward. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ *To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah's Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##*

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Thomas family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Tracy and Thomas Family,
I'm so grateful to God that He's been faithful to our family. Most families experience death by tragedy, but when God shows mercy and takes his children home, it warrants a great big, THANK YOU! God has extended his love to us for a long time, so even at this time of mourning we rejoice knowing that "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Love you much,
