“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ We offer our sincere condolence and deepest sympathy on your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers and the comfort in knowing that your loss is felt by many, help you through this difficult time.

I ask for God's blessings on you and your wonderful family. May you find the courage and strength to move forward in peace and confidence and in knowing that his was a life well-lived.

Yours In Peace,

“ Dear Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr. Wallace. Death at any age is an enemy because it robs families of their loved ones and leaves them with unspeakable pain and sorrow. Rest assured that our Loving Creator cares for us very much and has, therefore, promised that he will destroy death forever! (1Corinthians 15:26). In the meantime, may you take comfort in this Scriptural hope and also in the promise that all those in memorial tombs (graves) will (very soon) hear His voice and come out (John 5:28,29). May His words calm your hearts and minds and make a little easier the grief you bear, knowing God cannot lie and will do all that he has promised(Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
