“ When someone beloved and special falls asleep in death it is very hard to let go of the fact that they are gone. As you cherish fond memories of your loved one, also know that the God of all comfort is near providing comfort and hope during this difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). I urge you to rely on the promises of the scriptures for comfort (John 5:28,29). Jesus Christ promised: "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." My deepest sympathies to you.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ To the Cobb family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."-Ps. 34:18.###imported-begin###Mrs. Coleman###imported-end###

“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.###imported-begin###Cynthia Mills###imported-end###
