“ Hello.

"The birth took place at the couple's home (just outside Oslo)," says the palace, adding mother and baby were both well.

“ Waymon was so much a part of Fort Street Church -- I can't think of the church without remembering him in all the activities there.

As our boys were growing up, he was one of the Ft. Street family that always took time to talk to them. Every Monday night he was so faithful with Troop 2 Boy Scouts.

We know that Waymon was welcomed "Home" with a chorus of Angels and the open arms of Jesus Christ saying, "Well, done, faithful servant". For Waymon truly lived his Christian faith in every way.

The Open Door was place where he served so faithfully for years and years. I know his familiar face will be missed by all of those who come to the Church for help.

Our prayers are with Lola and all the family that Waymon loved so much.##imported-begin##Virginia and Bob Crilley##imported-end##

“ Waymon was my friend and we served the needy together. I will miss our conversations and friendship. Our times together were usually short in duration, but were long in memories. He will be missed by many, especially those he served,
The Lord has called him home and I know there were many to greet him.
Heavens gain is our loss.
