“ To the Family of Mr. Wilfred Allen,
I wish I had met Mr. Allen but since I did not have that pleasure it will have to be done through Daryl, the son he has raised and has become my friend. If Daryl is any indication of the kind of person that Wilfred must have been then he certainly would have been of strong character, caring, and a good friend. May his family find comfort in fond memories and may his soul rest in peace with his Creator##imported-begin##Dan Dawes##imported-end##
