“ My prayers are with you and your family during this time. Joe was an assistant principal at Foster Middle School in Longview, Texas where I taught several years ago. He was such an inspiration to others; therefore, I am positive that his brother was so much like him.

Once again, my prayers are with you.

“ Wendy and Family,

Our thoughts, prayer, and love are with you during this time. I am here for you during the late nights when it seems hard but more importantly whenever you need me. I know that a father and daughter bond is endless, to get you through remember you have always been your daddy's girl. Remember his warm smile and that great embrace. Most importantly remember love that was priceless. Keep praying and pressing on. Weeping my endure for a night but joy will come. I promise.
