“ To a Loving Brother,
You were the best loan that God could have ever blessed me to receive. You were always there for me. There could never had been a better brother that a girl could have had. I remember when I graduated from high school and college, you told me that's good.
You were always proud of me. The time you took me to get my second hole in my ears. The time when you help me to drive. You were with me when I got my first car and share my first car accident with. Thanks for being the best brother a girl could have and being there for alot of my firsts. I love you dearly.##imported-begin##Trina
