“ Mr. Brown was precious in God's eyes, just as we all are. Death is something unnatural. In our DNA pattern, Jehovah the God of all comfort, put the desire to live and never die in us. Ecclesiastes 3:11 "God has put eternity into man's heart." We will see Mr. Brown again. John 5:28-29 "all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out". Jesus not only died for all of us, he suffered, because he loves us so much. The memories you stored in your heart, as well as looking at pictures and videos of Mr. Brown, will help you to heal, even though it will hurt at first. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort". Revelations 21-3-5; Isaiah 26:19.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Brown family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ *Sherita and Brown Family,
I am so sorry for your loss.
Sherita,
We often talk about how this world has a blatant disregard for life and God. It was truly special to see that during your father's illness, your faith remained strong and that you took honor in helping to care for him. I never met your dad, but just from the light in your eyes when you spoke of him, I know your dad was a special and STRONG man. You are blessed to have him as your personal angel in heaven.
I will continue to pray to God for you and your family's strength and comfort during this time of sorrow.*

*Much love and prayer,
Gina##imported-begin##Regina Warner##imported-end##*
