“ I love you so much and I miss you even more. I had you longer than I had my mother. I thought losing her was the most hurt I would even feel; but that's not true. You visit me daily which make me experience you're not been here to talk to and care for a bigger hurt. I know you're with GOD and I will see you again.##imported-begin##Deborah Lorraine Mitchell##imported-end##

“ *To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah's Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##*

“ Dear Mitchell family, please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. William. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bible offers us satisfying answers to what happens at death, (1Corinthians 15:26)tells us that death is the last enemy that will be destroyed by God. May you find comfort from this thought.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Revelation 21:3-5, Our Grand Creator promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Matthew 28:18-20; all authority has been given to Jesus who provides comfort. John 5:28 & 29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Luke 23:43 Jesus also said, "You will be with me in paradise". 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
