“ William came into my life, remained a special part of my life for years, and touched my heart forever. My memories of William are of a bright, witty, young man who could make me laugh, who sought knowledge, and worked earnestly to succeed. He made not have fulfilled his dreams in the manner he wished, but he left an impression on all he touched. Your love and care for him have been a testament to you seeing the William you gave birth too, to the joys of his life, and to your belief that he is not suffering now and will always remain in your memories and your heart. Thank you for the honor of sharing William with my family and me. It has been a treasure and know that we consider you family and are here in any way we can be of assistance. With our thoughts, prayers and love We remain, your friends,
