“ *To the Conyers family: I knew Billy from 25th St in Detroit. He and his sister Shirley visited their Dad & stepmon each summer. I last saw him several years ago when his sister Corleen (Elaine) lost her mom. He was a funloving person who will surely be missed. I pray that the Peace of God ...that passeth all understanding be with you all.. and that the love & memories you shared with Billy remain forever to sustain you during this difficult time. “ *To the family of Billy Boy,
We went to school together as children and he was the cutest thing.
He had such a mischivious personality and I had a big chrush on him. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I am a member of his sister Shirley's church and see her often there. I wish all of you comfort in your hour of need. God Bless.
