“ To my family, may God Bless and keep you all . I can not tell you how sorry I am for your lost, our lost, and everyone around Uncle Jr. they have lost someone truly special .

I can remember the first time meeting Uncle Jr. in the early 70's . He was the best . After that I could never wait for Uncle Jr. to get to J-town . because I knew the fun was about to begin . He was also bringing two young men who came to be like brothers to me .

I will never forget you Uncle Jr. Their will never be another Uncle like you .

May God Bless your Soul, for ever and ever . Amen

Love .

“ Dear Uncle Jr. words cannot even begin to express how I felt about you. You was funny, loving always caring about how we were doing even though you was going through things. Uncle Jr. I know you are in a better place and we love you and will miss you deeply. When I think about all the times like this that you were there for us it pains me because you were our rock to get through these times. During our conversation two weeks ago when you told me you had made peace with God I knew it was time for you to go. Selfishly I wanted to stay but I knew the Master had his own plans for you. Over the years I have known you as my uncle you were always that and so much more. I am still trying to figure out who Aunt Suzy is but I am sure when we meet again you will tell me in some funny way. So for now Uncle I bid you a farewell but I will keep holding on to God's unchanging hand so one day I can see you again. Love you always but I know you loved us more.....Love Gregory.##imported-begin##SFC Gregory M Jones##imported-end##
