“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ Dear Cadell Family,
Sorry to hear about the Loss of Willie, My prayers are with you,
When i think of Willie i think about Willie Burgers & Polish Sausage!!. they were great back in the good old days, also his Smiling face, what great times we had going to the store many times in 1 day even it was just to buy 1 piece of candy at a time.

“ Caddell family, I am very sorry for your loss. I came to know Mr. Willie Caddell's son Winfred many years ago in college. In the short time I knew him, I found him to be a young man of positivity, great enthusiasm, and sincerity -- and that is clearly an impressive reflection of Mr. Caddell's legacy.##imported-begin##Dan Green##imported-end##

“ *Dear Cadell family,
You are in my prayers. Mr. Willie Caddell was the first business owner I knew in my young days growing up on waverly street. I admired both Mr. And Mrs. Cadell who I believed helped me go down a successful path in my life. I will never forget Mr. Caddell...could never call him Willie, because I have and will always have that much respect and admiration for him. My sister just called to let me know he past. I never had the chance to just say THANK YOU to him. I live in South Carolina now and sorry I can't be there for you today. Please know I am thinking of all of you during this very difficult time in your life. If you need anything, please let me know. SharonMayes2@gmail.com.##imported-begin##Sharon Mayes##imported-end##*
