“ Dear Collen and Jason,
our prayers go out to you and everyone in your family at this time. We know that Willie was so many things to so many people; a loving and thoughtful husband; a caring, concerned and proud father as well as a kind and generous spirit to others. I remember when my father passed, he looked and looked until he found one of the last pictures my parents had taken together (at a party at your home). He took the time to find and send it and every day when I look at it on my dresser, I am reminded of his thoughtful nature. Please know that Willie touched the lives of many people and now that he is free of his earthly burdens, he is in the best position to continue looking out for the both of you as he always has. As your Guardian Angel, he will continue to watch out for you and his memory will always be a comfort to you. We love you and will keep you in our prayers.
Love,
