“ As you continue to deal with your loss, I hope you find comfort in knowing that God will sustain you. (Psalms 55:22). Jehovah God is near those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. (Psalms 34:18) May the God of tender mercies and all comfort give you the strength you need to endure.##imported-begin##Valerie##imported-end##

“ To our Cousin Josephine and Family;

Death is a great sorrow, but time heals all wounds. The loss of your husband and our first cousin saddens our hearts, minds, and spirits. But, we know that the Lord, God giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed is the name of the Lord. We were ten remaining grandchildren of William and Carrie Gibbs Calhoun. Frank was the second oldest. Now there are nine, but everything is in divine order. May the peace of the Lord continue to comfort you, give you peace as you cherish the memories of your long life together as husband, father, grandfather, and friend. Love always, Dorothy Ruth Calhoun Burton, Darrel and Dorthea Nunlee, Briana Clarice Charleston##imported-begin##Dorothy Ruth Calhoun Burton##imported-end##

“ Dear Calhoun family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Willie. I am writing to share with you the bible hope of a future resurrection. The bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that death is our enemy that will be brought to nothing by God. This is a promise that is held out to all mankind, including, Mr. Willie. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during this time of mourning.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
