“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ Words can never express enough during a time like this. The family definitely has my heartfelt sympathy. I had the opportunity to work with Willie before his retirement. He will be greatly missed among his family and friends. May God continue to keep the family wrapped in His arms as you go through each waking moment.##imported-begin##Edith G. Egypt##imported-end##

“ Dear Cadwell family, I am very sorry for the loss of Willie and would like to extend my heartfelt condolence. A scripture I find comforting is Isaiah 60:20 Which says in part, "for Jehovah himself will become for you an indefinitely lasting light, and the days of your mourning will have come to completion". “ Cadwell Family, I'm so sorry to hear of the Homegoing of my friend and Mentor Willie. I will be forever reminded of how Willie took me under his wings during my stay at FAA Headquarters, which gave me the opportunity to meet his wonderful family. May God continue to show you Favor and Mercy in this difficult time. I will keep you in my prayers.###imported-begin##PatriciaHamilton-OKC###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Cadwell family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##

“ Loretta & Family

GOD never promised a life without pain, laughter without tears or sun without rain. But he did promise strength for the day, comfort for the tears and the light for the way. And for all who believes in his heaven above he rewards their faith in his everlasting love. May the peace of God be with you now and forever. “ Aunt Loretta, Cousin Cheryl, Cousin Cynthia and Cousin Craig. I'm so deeply sadden by the death of Uncle Willie. Uncle Willie has always been there for us. When both Ravin and David was sick no matter where you all were living he came to see about them and our well being. He was so helpful at all the DSC Family Reunions and would always helped in whatever was needed. I saw him last in Virginia at the Reunion and Aunt Loretta and Uncle Willie were sitting under a tree like lovebirds. They looked like they were have a loving but serious conversation. I will always treasure his stern and firm but patient way. Because that was his way. He let you know what he thought about you or what you were doing. What came up came out. You were not exempt from a comment good or bad.

God Bless you and I love you and sorry I couldn't be there to celebrate is homegoing to rejoin his parents and siblings that went before him.##imported-begin##Sheila Witherspoon##imported-end##

“ Dear Cadwell family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Willie River. I am writing to share with you the bibles hope of a future resurrection. The scriptures tell us at 1Corinthians 15:26 that death is the last enemy that will be destroyed by God. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
