“ *To the family once again, as I seek to share a possible word or expression of comfort that you may be able to draw upon at some future date. A word that comes to mind is that the best voice is not always the loudest. Many times God speaks in such a soft vice that you can even miss it....only the incessant nagging that you heard something just wont go away. It is at these times God desires us to seek to draw closer to Him. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." “ To: Hal, Jean, Earl, Bill and yes, to Woodie, all of you have been to me a sort of model family within the grander structure of our overall family. I began to see you Hallie and Woodie years ago as very special people, a gifted couple, a couple that showed me that this life held many sorrows, but the count always reveals more joys. In short, because of the two of you there is a legacy of love seeds embedded within the very core of this family.
Jean, Earl, and Bill we all can give something back, however small that certainly would do your father proud; I love each of you from the deep depths of my little heart.....in the words of mister Al Green - "Let's Stay Together" be blessed my family, be blessed!##imported-begin##Reverend W C Williams##imported-end##
