“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ Diane

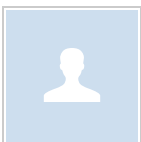

At this time, there are no words that can fill the emptiness of a losing a loved one, only love and support can comfort you. You and your family are in my prayers, my heart goes out to you. Trust god, know that he will wipe your tears, ease your pain and give you the strength that you need, he will carry you on and comfort you. Lean on his word, and let your mourning turn into to gladness, and comfort turn into to joy. May your faith and the kind felt words from the scriptures help you during this time.
Prayer is powerful and abundant###imported-begin##Candice Brooks###imported-end##
