“ To the Family:

Words can never express how sorry I am for your loss....I would like to offer words of encouragement from the bible. John 5:28&29-tells us, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....."

“ To the family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah's Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers###imported-begin###Brenda Jones###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Hall family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Hall family, please accept my sympathy over the death of Alexis. I knew her for many years. We went to Glendale together. Please know that now she is no longer in pain and that now she has a hope of a resurrection that is held out to all mankind. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) " If an able body man dies, can he live again..." May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell (Washington)##imported-end##

“ Words Can not express the loss that we will forever feel in our family. Auntie Alexis was a loving, kind and very compassionate person. She will always have a place in our hearts. We thank God for giving her to us for the time that she was here on earth. But we also have to thank God that he has now given her perfect peace and rest. No more pain and no more worries. May she rest in the Lord as we await the day when we will be united with her once again.##imported-begin##Marvin and Maria Jason Jr & Family##imported-end##
