“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Carroll###imported-end##

“ I sincerely offer my condolence. Words seem insufficient at this dire times. Although nobody denies the certainty of death, we all need comfort in the reality of it. May you find real comfort and relief, and as a result, begin to recover gradually from the pain. Love from those around you will help you through the days ahead. The precious memories of Alicia S. Gray will bring you comfort. However, even in the face of calamity you can have hope. God will comfort and bless you at this critical time. Do not let your hearts be troubled. (John 14:27) Complete reliance on “the God of all comfort” will help to endure his bereavement (2Cor. 1:3,4).###imported-begin###Geneva Humphrey McClendon###imported-end##

“ My heart and deepest sympathy goes out to the Gray family. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. May you find comfort through the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Gray family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Your loss is shared by many who care. Death, at any age is tragic and an enemy of us all. Alicia was to be a promising young lady, who should have had eternity ahead of her. There are many scriptures that can give comfort, these, I forward to you: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.’ For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’ Matthew 11:28-30, Jesus says, “Come to me all you who are loaded down . . . I will refresh you”. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 Jehovah is the God of all comfort, who will comfort us in all our tribulation. Please throw your burden, upon him, because he cares for you. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. Revelations 21:3-5. Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ To The Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the loss of your precious loved one, Alicia. Death at any age is an enemy of mankind, but especially when one is so young for it robs the family of its best and leaves the survivors devastated! However, our Loving Creator promises to destroy death...forever (Isaiah 25:8), and He promises us that we can see our precious loved ones again by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). Mourning, tears, sorrow, outcry and all things that cause us pain will be done away with forever!! (Revelation 21:4) I realize that at this moment words may offer little comfort, but I hope in the days ahead that you will read these Scriptures and think seriously about the wonderful hope that God offers...to see our loved ones again(Acts 24:15) May this help ease your pain and comfort your hearts knowing that Our Loving God will do all that He has promised for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
