“ The loss of a loved one is difficult to say the least. The loss of a Mother is the hardest loss of all. Mothers are the backbone of the family and they've done more and will do more than anyone to protect and provide for their children. God has called home one of his own and now she'll be and angel in heaven. Our prayers go out to our cousins (Mildred's children and grandchildren) and the family. May God continue to Bless all of you with his Love and Protection throughout your lives. We Love You..##imported-begin##Charles Peoples##imported-end##

“ I will never forget the love and kindness that you showered on me my ENTIRE life, always with " How you doing baby, everthing alright? Just let me know if you need anything!". You always said that to me (and everyone else) and I knew you meant it too. Thank you for giving so much of you to me and my mother, your lifelong "sister". Everyone called you "Sister", but in true life you were a sister to my mother. Like me, I know she will miss you and all that you two shared.Also, Thank you too for showing me how to "be there" for our family, and the family reunions will surely not be the same without your presence! I will miss calling you and asking "Hey baby, how ya doing" (stealing your line from you)- and you knowing that it was me without me saying another word. I'll always love you!###imported-begin###Mustafa###imported-end##
