“ Nok, I miss you soo much. Sometimes I wish I could hear you laugh one more time. I still have yur number in my phone Auntie told me not to delete it. sometimes after something crazy happens to me I grab my phone so I can call and tell you, Then I realize you won't pick up . You where my little cousin but it felt more like you wher my sister and I will never forget you. I love you a thousand times over and I pray that we meet again in a place where loss doesn't exist.##imported-begin##Christina Barclay##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Anniyyah. Rest assured that your Heavenly Father is aware of your pain and grief. He has already made provisions for Anniyyah to be resurrected to life again in His due time. Our Heavenly Father knows how much death hurts us. He knows that we are helpless in the face of it...but He is not! That is why He is going to destroy death forever! (1Corinthians 15:26). That is also why He has promised us, through his Son, Jesus Christ, that the hours is coming when all those asleep in death will awaken at His command (John 5:28,29) Jehovah God assures us that soon death, mourning, outcry and pain will be things of the past! (Revelation 21:3,4). May God's words bring comfort to your hearts in the days and weeks ahead. Rest assured, these promises comes from a Father who truly cares about you (1Peter 5:7), and will, therefore, do all that He has promised (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14). Throughout the Bible, the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death at any age is an enemy. If death could keep us in bondage forever, it would be stronger than our heavenly father, Jehovah God. Death is no match for our creator, who is the source of life (Psalm 36:9). He has already made provision to eliminate death ... forever! (1 Cor. 15:26). As for our loved ones who have died, God has promised us that they will not be forsaken, John 5:28, 29 the "hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out". Yes, that time is yet before us, but not far off (Acts 24:15). Even though your hearts are breaking, know that you will see Anniyyah again. Everlasting life was promised in the beginning and will come true. May you find comfort in the God of all comfort. Put faith in His Word knowing that he truly cares about us (1Peter 5:7) and all that Jehovah has promised...He will do. He cannot lie. (2Cor. 1:2-4), (Titus 1:2).##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##

“ "Niyah's" spirit will never be forgotten. I am so saddened, though I only had the pleasure of knowing her for a very short period of time. Her presence on the Shamrock Football Playfield was always such a reward for both myself and the youth that she inspired with her beautiful personality and smile. Ironically, the day before her passing...She was there! Lending a helping hand as usual. I saw her and had a wonderful conversation with her that I shall never ever forget. To the family of Niyah.... Thank you for sharing your angel, your nubian princess, your beautifully spirited young woman with us! My prayers will be with you as you procede on this journey of life without her. Sincerely, Ms.Rhonda, Shamrock
