“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Ms. Aurtherine Black, I truly am sorry to learn about the loss of your loved one. Although I did not personally know Ms. Black, I do unfortunately know the pain associated with losing a loved one. But the Bible offers us all a hope. At John 5:28,29 it states: " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." I would like to take this opportunity to express to you my condolences and encourage you to meditate as you read your copy of the Bible so that you will find the comfort that the scriptures can offer you.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: What a joy! What a privilege you had to have had Mrs. Aurtherine with you for such a long time. She was truly a lady of 'special mightiness" (Psalm 90:10). Still, it breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28,29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one and the precious memories that she left you, that you will also find much comfort in God's promises to us for the near future, for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dear Black family,please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Aurtherine Mabel. I am writing to share with you the bibles wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14)"If an ale body man dies, can he live again." This hope was held out to all mankind, including Ms. Aurtherine Mabel. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ To the Black family: As we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all who have fallen asleep in death; including your beloved Autherine. I forward my sincere condolences to you all, during this time of bereavement. I pray Our Grand Creator, who is the God of all comfort; give you the strength needed to endure the pain that now fills your heart. “ Hi Jeanie & Family,

I was so sorry to hear about your Grandmother. You and your family will remain in my prayers. She was such a wonderful person and it was so obvious she loved you so. I have no doubt heaven opened it's arms and welcomed her in. I will continue to pray as the Lord holds your hand thru this difficult time. I am here if you need me for anything! I love you!##imported-begin##Latanya Clemons-Parks##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Black family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
