“ I spent at least half of my childhood with Aunt Bessie, Uncle Grady, Aunt Louise, Uncle George and my cousin Robert. I spent as much time spending weekends with them than with my own immediate family. Aunt Bessie was ALWAYS so full of life and spirit. Her big hugs, bright smile and laughter fill my childhood memories. She was a great aunt, always down to earth and friendly, as well as being tall and elegant. She made my late wife Lady Sarah feel so much at home, from the first moment to the last. She was ALWAYS supportive of me, and I shall miss her greatly. She was such a blessing in my life. The scripture tells us "Weeping may endureth for a night, but JOY cometh in the morning."

May it comfort Harold and Aunt Bessie's immediate family with the words God spoke to Joshua: "Be strong and of good courage. Be not afraid, neither be thou discouraged, for I am with you, withersoever thou goest."

May God's grace and mercy grant the family peace of mind during this time.

The greatest gift is that she was loved and respected by so many, and she has left a strong legacy. Know that she is at peace, at home with the Lord. She is reunited with the great love of her life, Uncle Grady, in eternal glory. On behalf of the Dewberry and Cosby families, well done, well done, thou good and faithful servant, for LIVING the WORD IN LOVE, PEACE, GIVING, AND BLESSING!!###imported-begin##Jonathan Dewberry Cosby###imported-end##

“ GETTING FREE

It's hard to imagine Jesus needing a storage unit for HIS EXTRA STUFF. If anything I own keeps me from obeying him wholeheartedly, am I redy to open my hand,release it, and freely follow him? -David McCasland

A faith that costs nothing and demands nothing is worth nothing. Thanks Aunt Bessie for not talking about it, but being about it for us all. Let us all praise GOD IN REMEBRANCE OF YOU -##imported-begin##Patty Ann & Family##imported-end##

“ God has called my aunt home.I see no reason to moan or groan.God has called my aunt home. Where? To heaven her real home. God has called my aunt home.Why? So she can sit next to his throne. God has called my aunt home. When? He knew it was time for her to return home. God has called my aunt home. I will see her there the day I return home.We all are waiting to return home.##imported-begin##Robert J. Reese##imported-end##

“ I will miss you, Aunt Bessie. I will miss the times that you always made me laugh when you were here in MS. You are a wonderful aunt, and I am so glad of all the wonderful times that I shared with you. I prayed for you when you were sick, but God knows best. I know that you are in a better place. Love always, Tekka Herron-Johnson.##imported-begin##TEKKA HERRON-JOHNSON##imported-end##

“ My dear Aunt Bessie, it is so hard for me to believe you are gone. When I think about the times we've shared, when I was up there or you were down here in Mississippi, I smile and remember all the good times we shared. There are so many wonderful things to reflect on. I was so sorry to hear that you were sick and I prayed to God for your healing. Each time when I heard that you were not doing so well, when I would talk to someone again, you were doing a little better. I was thankful for that. I am so sorry that I did not heed the voice of God telling me to call you when I had my surgery in August. I just didn't do it and now I won't get a chance to hear your voice again. I am reminded when Jesus said these words, Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day and he saw it and was glad. I am confident that there is a lot of rejoicing going on in heaven because you are there with Uncle Grady and all the family and have seen Jesus' face. This makes me happy. Till we all meet at Jesus's feet. I love you Aunt Bessie.
