“ Kim,

Please know that you and your family are truly in my prayers. I know that your mom is home with are Lord and Savior, smiling down on all of you, praying that you will celebrate her life and not mourn her death, because she's where we all hope to be someday. May God bless all of you.##imported-begin##Cassandra Jones##imported-end##

“ To Kim and the entire Courtney family:

Your mom was one crazy, fun-loving lady and I know because her and I were 2 peas in a pod. We had some fun times at Lynch Rd, her and Larry Mitchell would do duets, like Edith & Archie Bunker. I know you will miss her, but know she is in a better place free from pain and looking down on us while we struggle to survive. My prayers and love go out to you and your loving family. Take care and remember I'm only a phone call away. LOL MICKI##imported-begin##Micki Blaz##imported-end##

“ Kim,

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. It just doesn't seem real that Hubba is no longer here to laugh and smile with. She will forever be missed. If you need anything, please don't hesitate to reach out to me. I'll be there for you. You and your family will be in my family's prayers.

“ Kim, my deepest condolences for the lost of your mother and best friend. I remember Brenda from our bowling days. She was so much fun and wasn't a bad bowler on top of that. That dance she used to do when she bowled a strike, I don't know where she got that from. I lost my mother 6 years ago and I think of her everyday. Even though your mother is not with you physically, she will always be with you in spirit. Hold on to that because that is what will get you through the years to come. It continues to help me.

Love You!###imported-begin###Lolita Wadley###imported-end###

“ Aunt Brenda, you have lived your life to the fulliest, and now God has called you home to a better place. I am glad I had the chance to see you some time ago when you, Kim and Tracy came to visit me and my family in Memphis, TN. You can rest now my dear, no more pain to keep you awake at night. To the Courtney family, Sorry I couldn't be with you in your time of grieving. You all are in my prayers, I love you.....take care..... and be strong!!!!!!##imported-begin##Mrs. Degria Jones -Roberts##imported-end##
