“ *We will miss Carol's smiling face of faith among our midst. Remembrance of her voice of praise of our heavenly father continues to encourages us to persevere whatever lies before us, knowing that Yahshua is with us. “ *May you receive the strength you need to endure the days ahead. As you reflect on the happier times you shared with Carol, may your tears of sadness turn to smiles. “ I will miss Carol very much. I was just thinking of her last visit to class in a wheelchair, and how her spirit was so happy to just be there amongst the brethern, and being obedient unto Yahshua; for she knew he is the only one who will deliver her unto eternal salvation. I put my arms around her and kissed her on the cheek, and whispered to her: "Carol, I love you, I'm so glad to see you, and Yahshua has you in his arms". She said, I know, and just smiled. Yahshua is so merciful, and he truly carried Carol through her trials in this flesh. He gave her strength, and anchored her faith in him that was noticeable to us all. She was a witness unto his power and mercy that I will never forget. This is a little something I wrote in my thoughts of her:

Yahshua, we thank you for the breaths you give us
To share with family and friends;
But just as life is given,
we realize it must end.
As sure as hearts are saddened,
As painfully tears will flow,
Your promise of our resurrection in you,
is our fervent prayer and hope.
Though the presence of our loved one
Is no longer in our view,
Her spirit and soul is now resting
Eternally, within you.

We thank you Heavenly Father
For making us understand,
That all things are by your Divine purpose, pattern and plan.
Though we may not see tomorrow -
Our hope is day by day,
That you continue to have mercy on us,
For you are the only truth, and the only way!###imported-

May yahshua strengten the family in this time of loss with gladness of heart that Carol is in the bosom of the Father.##imported-begin##Sharon Lewis##imported-end##*
