“ I send condolences to the family of Mrs. Blackwell. may you find comfort knowing that God has promised a wonderful future for us all, when "death will be no more" (Revelation 21:3,4) and all "will find the exquisite delight in the abundance of peace"(Psalms 37:10:10,11,29). At that time our grief will be turned i to joy when we enjoy our dear lost ones again##imported-begin##jeanne##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....." May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie." (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read about the loss of Carolyn and I wanted to extend my condolences to your family. We are encouraged by the fact that God knows and feels our pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22). Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29).##imported-begin##T. Cherry##imported-end##
