“ Sorry for you lost. I worked with Cassandra for many years in the compliance/audit department @ GTC, moving to California in 2005. I will always remember her smile and wonderful laughter. She will always remain in my heart.##imported-begin##Carolyn Wilson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: God has promised that: "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more." (Revelation 21:3,4) Death is an enemy to mankind that Jehovah God has promised us will be destroyed (1Corinthians 15:26). May the God of all comfort strengthen you now in your time of sorrow(2 Corinthians 1:3,4) In the days and years ahead as you think lovingly on Cassandra, may it bring comfort to your hearts to know that she is precious in Jehovah God's eyes and that soon, at his word, she will live again(Psalm 116:15, Isaiah 26:19) My prayers and thoughts are with you. My Deepest Sympathy.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear that we have lost a love one and family member that was so beautiful and caring. I enjoyed the few outings we shared. I wish we had lived closer to each other and had a chance to spend more time together.
God Knows Best.

“ It is with deep sympathy I write. Cassandra was precious in God's eyes, just as we all are. Even though I did not know her personally, the bible is the only place we can find true comfort during this difficult time. Death is something unnatural. In our DNA pattern, Jehovah God put the desire to live and never die. Ecclesiastes 3:11 “God has put eternity into man's heart.” We will see Cassandra again. John 5:28-29 "all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out". Jesus not only died for all of us, he suffered. Jesus loved us so much that he wanted to leave his heavenly home, knowing that blood needed to be poured out to save mankind, so we can live. Jesus did this for Cassandra too. Revelations 21-3-5; Isaiah 26:19.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##
