“ To the Son and Family of Cheryl Thomas: May I please offer my sincere condolences on the death of your mother. I didn't know her personally, but I do know how it feels to lose a mother and my heart ached for you,for I lost my mother too, some years ago! Your mother's death will leave a whole in your heart that only God can heal...and he will. For he has promised a resurrection to life for your mother and mine and many other loved ones sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) He promises to wipe away the tears from our eyes and death will never separate us from our loved ones again (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:4). These promises of God have brought me much comfort over the years and I look forward to the time, very shortly, when Jehovah will fulfill them and restores my mother to me. He will surely do the same for you. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Alonte,

Your mother was a wonderful human being. She loved you so much, THAT I know!

Cheryl, if you can hear me, if you can see me, then your know that you know that you are so loved. You knew what you were doing when you asked me to come back in a couple days, a couple days came and went and so now you are no longer in pain or indespair.

I love you my dear friend. I love you for making me a part of your family as one of your aunties. Baby I will always love you.

“ I want to express my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of Cheryl. I did not know her personally. But, the pain in the words of previous consolences touched my heart. We are all precious in God's eyes. This is not what our Grand Creator Jehovah God intended for us. Death is something unnatural. In our DNA pattern, HE put the desire to live and never die. Ecclesiastes 3:11 "God has put eternity into man's heart." Cheryl can rest now, from her struggle to survive. Until Jesus calls her name in the resurrection, where she will come out and have the opportunity to live forever in paradise on earth. No more sickness, pain or tears of saddness. Luke 23:32, John 5:28-29 "all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out". Revelations 21:3-5; Isaiah 26:19###imported-begin###Liz Malone###imported-end###
