“ Hey Mae! You may not know me, but you probably know my siestr (Erinn Ruff). I just wanted to say congratulations on your blog and your new position as part of the naturallycurly.com family. I consider myself to be something of a natural hair blog connoisseur (:D) and your site is fantastic and inspirational. I BC'd in June '07 but since there is still so much that I feel I am learning throughout this process, blogs such as yours are a welcome source of knowledge. I must say that it is somewhat of a surreal experience for me to watch your vids because I remember seeing you and your siestr as young children on Sabbaths at the OC church (I was at OC from 99-2003 and your dad was the assistant pastor for most of that time. Wow I feel old!:) You and your siestr have grown into lovely women and I encourage you to continue to acknowledge the Lord (as you have been) in all that you do. Your hair is fabulous. Keep up the great work.##imported-begin##Chandrashekhar##imported-end##

“ Dear Goldsmith family,

*My thoughts and prayers are with you as you mourn the loss of your beloved Mom. While this is a difficult time, remember, that to be absent in the body, is to present with the Lord; so, because Ms.
Christina was saved, she is in the awesome presence of God. How comforting!*

Blessings and Peace,

“ My dear Goldsmith Family,

Memories Build a Special Bridge
Our memories build a special bridge when loved ones have to part to help us feel we're with them still and sooth a grieving heart. Our memories span the years we shared, preserving ties that bind, They build a special bridge of love and bring us peace of mind.
