“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Boyd-Carroll##imported-end##

“ Dear Grant family, please accept my condolence on the death of your loved one, Ms. Claratha Marie. I am writing to share with you the bible's hope on a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies can he live again... this hope was held out to all mankind, including Ms. Claratha Marie. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Please accept this as my expression of sympathy over the lost of your dear loved one. When we loose a loved one, it creates a void beyond all understanding. The scriptures show us that death is our enemy that will be destroyed by God (1 Corinthians 15:26). May the God of all comfort be a source of comfort to you and your family.##imported-begin##Althea Williams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones, no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to enjoy life again. (John 5:28 ,29; 11:25) I hope in the days ahead as you find a quiet place and reflect on the life of your loved one, Claratha, and the precious memories she left you, that you will also find much comfort and reassurance as you ponder Jehovah God's promises to us for the near future (Joshua 23:14). Please keep his promises close to your heart for they will not fail to come true. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###
