“ Dear Family: May I please offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Ms. Cora. What a wonderful privilege she had to be here not far from a hundred years! Even so, with such longevity, our lives passes too quickly, like a 'mist appearing for a little while and then disappearing', the Bible says (James 4:14). Death is truly an enemy to us because it steps in and separates us from those we love so much (1Corinthians 15:26). Thankfully, our Loving Creator has already made arrangements to provide escape from death, for He has promised a resurrection for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29). His purpose is to restore our dead loved ones to life, where they will live, not for a few short years, but forever...the way He intended it to be from the beginning (Psalm 37:11,29)free from sickness, death, pain, outcry and sorrow. (Revelation 21:4). May Jehovah God's decision to bring this about soon, comfort your hearts in the days and weeks ahead, knowing he cares for you dearly (1Peter 5:7) and, therefore, will do all that He has promised (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your loss. Psalms 90:10 "In themselves the days of our years are seventy years; And if because of special mightiness they are eighty years, Yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things; For it must quickly pass by, and away we fly." Surely, Mrs. Evans had "special mightiness". She would have turned 93 in November. But, no matter what age a person dies it truly breaks our heart. Jehovah the God of all comfort is close to those who are brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. He is a refuge for the oppressed, and a stronghold in times of trouble. Give all your pain, sorrow, and grief to Him. He will give you the peace and strength you need to endure the days ahead. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##
