“ I was just think about how sweet and wonderful DeDe was. She was the type of woman that always thought about everyone else above herself. There was nothing that she wouldn't do for those who showed her the love that she deserved. Her bright smile made the room seem brighter and happier just by her showing up. She always gave a reason for others to be happy and to be joyous. She was one of the few women who love Lord of the Rings, when we watched it together she would always get more excited than me. She made it special each time we would watch it. I miss her with all that I am, her kisses, her smile, her touch, and smell. I will always remember her with all my heart and mind. Goodbye DeDe, you will be with my always.##imported-begin##Lucius Barnett##imported-end##

“ My prayers are with you and your family. The Holy Spirit who is the Comforter will sustain you in days to come Through the years, I did not have the opportunity speak with Dee Dee often, but she left an impression on me. She was full of life and a real individual. She taught me some very valuable lessons and did not realize it. On the few opportunities I encountered her, she gave me the impression that she embraced life on her terms, not based on what others thought her. I am grateful that our paths crossed. I pray that in the days to come you will continue to celebrate her life as you celebrate yours. I believe she would have it no other way. God bless you with Love and Peace.##imported-begin##Regina D. “ I was so saddened to learn of Dee's passing. The strange thing about it was that the day before her passing, out of nowhere, she was the topic of conversation. Her smile, very cheerful disposition.... I was just looking forward to hanging around everyone again. My heart goes out to her family. I just can't express how sad I feel about all of this. May the Lord bless all of you & keep you in his loving sight.

Rest in peace, Dee. No more pain. No more troubles. No more sadness.##imported-begin##Jewel Alexander##imported-end##

“ I could be cliché and say the normal and the usual but Dee and the members of the family that know me would know that's not me.

On April 2nd, I lost a true friend, someone that I knew was as genuine and caring without thought, or regret. Dee was in many people's eyes the life of the party, the raw one, the one that stood her ground and the ground for those she cared about. But she also was the one that cared about others and the effect life played itself out with them.

We've lost a "DIVA" but not in the physical but in the spirit she brought to those she touched. People come and people go, but there is ONE who will forever have her place within the hearts and memories of many, and within the silent tears of now and tomorrow.

We will miss you, Lady.##imported-begin##Keith XAVIER Mitchell##imported-end##

“ First I would like to say to the family and loved ones, my deepest sympathy in this hour of sorrow. I would like to encourage each of you.

I live in Southern California and I want to let you know that her loss is felt on the other side of the country.

She is not gone, she is only a far away as a memory. Whenever you think of her that keeps her near you and in closing she is definitely going to be missed.

“ It was with deep sadness when I learned of the passing of our beloved Dee Dee. Her untimely demise is one that has a devastating effect on all who knew and loved her. Her passing creates a true void in the lives of her relatives, friends and legion of admirers. Dee Dee's love, dedication and commitment should not only be remembered, but emulated by all.##imported-

“ Dee was a beautiful woman and a wonderful friend. We became close during the last year before I moved to Vegas. She listened while I babbled about random things going on in my life and gave me some very valuable advice on many occasions. I miss her taking me out for drinks when I was having a bad day and sitting around in her room chewing the fat about everything and nothing. She became a dear friend and confidante and my biggest regret is that we knew each other for so many years and took so long to become friend. My life was blessed by knowing her and I'm glad we did become friends. Our loss is heaven's gain. RIP dear Deatrice.##imported-begin##S Lynn Mitchell MBA##imported-end##

May the Lord hold her children, grandchildren , family and friends in his arms and comfort you , like only he can . Know that she can't feel any physical pain or any pains of this world. I know she will be missed, but try and focus on the positive and all the joy she brought to your life . This earth is just a temporary place for us all and we all one day have to talk that walk.
