“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the McMillian family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the McMillan Family. As a 19-year old young woman, I met your mother while working at Ardmore center. With her bright smile and hospitality she welcomed me to work every day with a warm plate & fun spirited conversation. Twenty three years later I have the honor of calling her daughter Latonya, my best friend, her son Anthony, a mentor, and countless other good memories of family reunions and other special occasions we shared. Deb, I will miss you and thank you for allowing me to be part of your family!###imported-begin##Diane Livermore###imported-end##

“ Darlene my prayers are with you for your loss I lost my mother few years back and but I know where she is and know she is surrounded by a love that is so pure and strong that we could not even imagine. I first met your mom at work when she rolled up to me and said hi and extended her hand to me and said its like one big family here. I asked her who she was she said I'm mom.After that every time I saw her in hallway she always had a smile and asked me how I was. I also remember in the activities room when we surprised you with a birthday lunch and as I glanced over at your mom I could see how proud she was of you as tears were running down her face. There was no doubt your mother loved you and her family.now she lives in you and the kids and grandkids that's part of her legacy.I'm sure to her you were a perfect daughter and that we saw a glimpse of that day and in short time knew her. “ To all of Debbie's Children, Grandchildren and all her family members and friends, I had the pleasure of caring for Debbie for a little over a year. She was one of the most caring people I have ever met. She would always be talking about her kids and grand kids, whom she loved dearly. We would laugh together while I was cleaning her apartment and she would always be giving me tips on how to cook. She was my friend and I will miss her dearly. Going to take care of her was not a job...it was a labor of love....Debbie Manoogian###imported-begin###Debbie Manoogian###imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Although I didn't know your loved one personally, I certainly understand how it feels to lose a mother you love to death (Psalm 89:48). May you find comfort in knowing that your mother, too, is precious in God's eyes and will not be forgotten by him (Psalm 116:15) Our Loving God has promised us that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) and we will have the joy of seeing our dead loved ones again (John 5:28,29). While we await the fulfillment of his word, may you bathe in your beautiful memories of your dear mother and may you find comfort of mind and heart knowing that all things will take place exactly as promised by God. (2 Cor. 1:3,4; Titus 1:2). Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us (1 Cor. 2:9). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
