“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ I am sitting here at OCC as I have really lost you as my Best Friend. We met officially in the 10th grade at Cass Technical High School. Who would have thought that we part ways this early and here. Lots of love and zillions of girlfriend arguments growing up, and entering into womanhood through the years really represented a sisterhood . We had different journey's and different paths/goals/aspirsations; (You love the Science to my mom) and similarities in which we would have always had met at the crossroad We traveled; we've triumphed; we've dreamed; we've made decisions; we've grown, and we conquered challenges. There really are'nt any words to say as I have often silently thanked the Most High for friends and family (on Greenlawn/Webb (Yoland Adams) You are the Great Teacher and the Curriculum geniuous is what is true. My roommate in undergrad (Christine and you both fought/ stood that about each other. You stood for the Chrisining of my children, and you are Markies godmother. Your parents often still parented me; as I have a different story in alot of ways. You have been a friend in uncertainties; as well as, a friend in certainties that came forth. I thought that we all would have made back up East and enjoy how my impossible strive became a reality. Thanks for a sisterhood; thanks for friendship, and thanks for sharing the love of your family with me through the years. ##imported-begin## Cheryl Lynette Moore ##imported-end##

“ To the McCullough family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..."-Isa. 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##
