“ I Miss You... I love You. Its so hard for me at times.. just not being able to see your face walk through those doors is heartbreaking... no one can put a time limit on when things will get better I just gotta believe they will.. We still dont know what took you away from us.. but I know I will always have you as my guardian angel. To look over me, visit me, advise me, and still be my mother like you always have been.. I cannot express how much my heart hurts and I wont try but at least I get to let you know.. How much I love you and Mlss you.. See you again mom.. Your daughter, pamel###imported-begin##PAMELA TYNISHA WILLIS###imported-end##

“ No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. When we hear people say Debra had a good old life while she was alive. Well it's not enough. It's not selfish to say, "I want you to stay". The bible says, Jehovah put eternity in our mind. We don't ever want to die. I'm sure Debra never wanted that either. We can only find true comfort during this difficult time in the bible. Death is something unnatural. In our DNA pattern, Jehovah put the desire to live and never die. Ecclesiastes 3:11 Debra can rest until Jesus calls her name in the resurrection, where she will come out and have the opportunity to live in paradise on earth. The truth found in the bible gives us hope that we will see her again. John 5:28-29 "all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out". Cherish Debra's memory, until we see her again. Revelations 21:3-5; Isaiah 26:19.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##
