“ *Dear Sister Lois,
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this timee.
Here is a special poem for you to keep near your heart.*

A Special Sister

We've seen a lot of happiness and shared our worries too. We've belived in dreams and made up plans about all that we do. Though each day we're not together, we're really not apart. We will always share our sweet memories that live deep in our heart.

God Bless You

“ Dear Sister Lois and Family,
In this sorrowful time, in Spirit I'm with you. I want your heart to be filled with the same joy of the heavenly angels as they are prepared to welcome and take care of our beloved sister and mother Diane Gregory, who just stepped in the eternal domain of the mystery of life. I pray that the favor of God be with her all the way.

“ Greetings Dear Sister Lois and family
Almighty God is the author of peace and administers it to all. He hear and see those in need. He relieves us of our suffering. What a beneficent God we have in charge of our affairs. He is the best of planners and his judgement is always tempered with love and mercy. Deep compassion we send forth to you and your family.

Your Sister

“ Sis Lois & Family:

As you carry on through this emotional and trying time. I pray that the all-mighty give you the strength to pull through. The wisdom and understanding to gain that ever present message in this trying time. I also pray that the ancestors guide your sister on her way through the after life.

May the all-mighty watch over you and your family in this your time of need.

You are always in my prayers.

“ To Lois, Geneen, Craig, Marcus, Jimmy, Carol and the entire family:

As you face this most difficult time, reach to God for His healing love, His comfort and His grace. Do not focus on Dinae's absence in body, but be grateful for the abundance of love, joy and pleasure that she has brought to all of your lives.

As one great poet wrote, "Lives of Great men all remind us we can make our lives sublime and departing leaves behind us footprints in the sands of time."..... Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.##imported-begin##Maria Lambert & Family##imported-end##

“ To Sis. Lois and family:

This is a time for you to grieve, but there'll come a time when you'll grieve no more. There'll be a time when your memories will be pleasant and make you laugh. That's the time you'll know your sister is alive in your heart. So grieve now, but remember never let her spirit die. Keep that spirit alive in your memories and in your hearts.##imported-begin##Debgeri Cubi and Family##imported-end##

“ Dear Cousin Lois&Family

We are saddened by Diane's passing. Please share our love and concern with the rest of our cousins. We know that everyone has warm and loving thoughts of Diane. May those thoughts help to ease and soothe death's pain. Our prayers are with you and the extended family. We pray that God's love will sustain and comfort you and all of the family. Rest assured that Diane is now in a better place. With Love, Cousin Godfrey & Marion

“ Dear Sister Lois & Family:

We wish to let you know that we care and that your loss is shared by us. You're in our thoughts and hearts and in our every prayer. May you find the courage to face tomorrow in the love that surrounds you today.

May the love of friends and family be a source of comfort. At this time of sorrow, may these truths sustain you. Your loved one will always be as close as a memory and the God of all comfort is always as close as a prayer.

It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, and the laughter. Although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memory of these little things that will help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.

We will continue to hold you in our prayers at this time and always.

“ Always,always~Loving memories of Diane. I remember the fun times we used to have when she would "babysit" me so many moons ago. And then, later on to see her at one of my favorite eateries on WSU campus. Fond memories of the entire family. May God give you all peace and joy in the celebration of her life and the time she has shared with us during her season.
