“ Dear Tanitia and Family:

I know your mother's passing is painful but I am glad she had a chance to enjoy being with all of you in Michigan after having lived in Tennessee. I'm sure the time you spent together will give you memories that will ease your sorrow and that the love she had for you all will draw you even closer. From everything I know about her, hers was a life well lived and worth celebrating.

Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing into Zion and everlasting joy shall be upon their head, they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorry and mourning shall flee away.

“ To Diane's Children and Brother, Robert. My prayers are with you. God will bless you with the strength to continue on.

We grew up together on the same street and throughout the years we would lose touch. But we would find each other again through our mutual good friend, Denise (Black) Currie. An e-mail here, an e-mail there. Once in awhile a telephone call.

I would like to share a happy event that I spent with Diane when you guys gave her a Birthday Party when she turned "50". How it was such an enjoyable time. I still play and dance to the "CD" (classic songs) you created for her. With me turning the same age 15 days later, I claimed the party as a beginning of my own celebration.

God will keep you in his care!

Diane, I'm glad I knew you!

Love,

My condolences to you on the passing of your loved one. I know that this is a very difficult time for you all. Find strength and comfort in God and each other, as Ms. Poe would have you to do. “ I wish that I could be there, but since I cannot I will leave you with some words I found comforting when I lost my father.

Love Always,

LaTrease (and Melae & Kamali)

*Death is nothing at all,
I have only slipped away into the next room,
I am I and you are you;
Whatever we were to each other, That we still are.
Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the easy way which you always used,
Put no difference in your tone,
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we shared together.
Let my name ever be the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of a shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant,
It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.
All is well.*
