“ Eleanor always made me laugh. I would love to hear about her daily court cases and experiences. We enjoyed talking about the Detroit Pistons games and one of her favorite players, “Rasheed Wallace.” She will truly be missed. So very sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Willene Green##imported-end##

“Khareena and Shaunese, we've been friends for years and even joked about how our experiences, trials and struggles were similar. This is one experience I wish we didn't have in common.

Your mother was so many things, successful, articulate, educated, comical, beautiful and such an example to others. I'm glad I had the opportunity to know her, to spend time with her, and (recently) to have joked with her about the journey of life.

I won't leave you with cliches or "spiritual jargons" that don't seem to fit. I will leave you with this: I'm here for you, to cry with you, to sit with you, to talk with you, to reminisce, to laugh, to remind you and to love you! We can walk through this together.

I'll always remember you, "E!"##imported-begin##Wendy Thompson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy and encouraging words of love to you for the loss of your beautiful mother. I met Ms. Pearson in 1994 and she made coming to work a joy and a pleasure when we worked together. We made a spiritual connection and she was always like a mother to me. Your mother was truly a blessing in my life. I cherish the times we shared, her encouraging words of faith and her wisdom will live within me forever. Lord bless this family, surround them with your love, comfort and embrace them in their time of need . “And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.”
Rev. 21:4.

“ so sorry to learn of the passage at such a young age of my dear former colleague at the Law Department. Her friends and family are in my prayers - we are all still mourning the loss of Bill Daniel, another Law colleague.

Eleanor was a sweet, kind person and excellent attorney - God bless her and grant her rest.##imported-begin##Kay David
