“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##susan##imported-end##

He is there for you to lean and depend on him. Please remeber Psalms 23:1 which reads " The Lord is my sheperd, I shall not want. Lean and depend on God because he is your sheperd and a ever present help in the time of trouble.*

“ *I will always remember Mrs. Render directing our Junior Choir at 12th Street. She had Eddie Alexander and I sing the lead for "I'm Pressing On" a song that still rings in my heart. I'm in the ministry of the word at 12th Street in part due to her planting those early seeds of faith in my life. I'm still pressing on, trying to reach my heavenly home. May you also continue to press on for the cause of that great high calling in Jesus Christ.
Prayerfully in His Service,

“ Our heart-felt condolences are extended to the entire Render Family. Your mother has made a great impact in our lives as a choir director and Christian model and for that we are grateful of the time spent learning under her leadership. As we mourn the loss of her life, we also celebrate her transition into ever-lasting life as promised to those whom God has saved and kept through His son, Jesus Christ. We pray that our Mighty and Loving God continue to hold you close in His blossom. May He comfort you both now and forever!

With all of our Love,
