“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ To the Anderson Family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and hope from God word the Bible. Revelation 21:3,4 states that God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more the former things will pass away. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra Sargent##imported-end##

“ Dear Anderson Family, Please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Essie Lee. The bible gives us satisfying answers about what happens to us at death. Jesus Christ demonstrated God's power over death when he resurrected Lazarus from the dead (please read John 11:38-44) This scripture shows the concern and compassion that God and his son has for mankind. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: What a joy! What a privilege you had to have had Mrs. Essie with you for such a long time. She was truly a lady of 'special mightiness".(Psalm 90:10) Still, it breaks our hearts when death separates us from them no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again, including Mrs. Essie. (John 5:28,29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one and the precious memories she left you, that you will also find much comfort in God's promises to us for the near future for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
