“ Mom always shared ~ didn't matter if you needed it or wanted it, if you asked, she said yes. If she didn't have it, she'd find a way to get it for you.

Mom was always courteous ~ please, thank you, may I help you, excuse me, and she taught her children to use the same manners.

Mom had so many wonderful qualities I cannot list them all here.

She will always be missed and loved by me.

Love you Mommy ~ Rest in Peace##imported-begin##Pia

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ Aunt Ethel, although distance separated our family, there is still a closeness, a strong bond that could never be broken. Aunt Ethel you make all of us proud to be a member of your family! Your story - your service to others and willingness to achieve is inspiring to each and every one of us who has had the pleasure to know you. We love you so much! “ To the family of Ethel Lee Williams:

I share this loss with you knowing that this is not good-bye forever, but farwell for now. I met Ethel many years ago when I became involved with PACMAC. We began as two people working in a group and became very good friends who shared a passion for education and instilling self-esteem into our young people. Ethel has been my role model and from her I have learned so much. Please know that she was loved by her PACMAC family and will be truly missed and ALWAYS remembered.

Love,
Audrey C. Smith on behalf of PACMAC##imported-begin##Audrey C. Smith##imported-end##

“ To Anita and Family;

From the day you started working with me, 28 years ago...it became obvious that the qualities I admired in you were those that you learned from your Mother. I was blessed to have met her, and am deeply sorry for your loss. I know that she taught you and your siblings the importance of dedication, hard work and determination, that will stay with all of you, always. Your Mother's legacy will always be remembered through you. Love, JA##imported-begin##Jim Abramson##imported-end##
