“ Dear Mama,

You are the foundation of a family that is vastly expanding and growing. Your love and values have and will be passed on from generation to generation. I am so blessed to have had you around my entire life. You taught me how to pray and to praise and worship God's holy name. I know you are smiling down on me right now; not wanting me to stand at your grave and weep, but to rejoice that you have met our heavenly father. Mama, until we meet again, your memory will never be forgotten. Your loving great-granddaughter, Trina Barron.##imported-begin##Trina Barron##imported-end## “ Mama, my Grandmother, and a Grand Woman of God she was! She was a blessing to all of those who knew her. Out of anybody on this earth she made the most profound impact on my life. She instilled the word of God in me from an early age. She loved me unconditionally and always prayed for me even when I was not praying for myself. She taught by example and truly lived a Godly life. She always loved me to sing for her. She encouraged me when I needed it, told me when I was wrong, and praised me when I was doing right. I have nothing but good memories to remember my Grandmother by and I know she is in heaven right now playing some gospel music on the piano, eating some chocolate or one of those delicious apple crisp that she used to make so well, smiling down on all of us and singing praises to His name.

I love you Mama
