“ I have literally just found out about Gina's passing... 11 years after the fact. I had heard rumors but was never able to definitively verify it. I am shocked all the same, and equally shocked that no one let me know. I don't mind though as I know that would have been a difficult call to make. I know it was not malicious...

"G" and I married in 1985, honeymooned in Las Vegas and lived around Los Angeles. The first time I laid eyes on her I was gobsmacked! She was kind and unbelievable with children. A skilled athlete, a vivacious woman, and a character to be sure. When I think of her a smile comes to my face. I loved her, I miss her and I pray that she "Rest in Peace" .

“ Not a week or day goes by where you fail to cross my mind. Something profound, or intelligently silly you might say, or an unusual turn of phrase, or even a word you might pluck from your expansive vocabulary. Merely saying I miss you, isn't adequate. I miss everything about you. Your laughter, you character, your spirit & your wit. RIP. -Lenard Taylor
