“ I am so sorry for your loss. The bible tells us that, "death does have a sting." We can be encouraged, because soon the sting of death will be gone. Jesus tells us, all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out. Jesus always told the truth. That will be a glorious time! Just imagine, when we read the news paper, it will be happy news; a resurrection column instead of an obituary column. Certainly, we want to do all we can to be there to welcome Gwen back. Our God Jehovah is truly a God of comfort and not the cause of such pain. Our prayers are with you and the family. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7. My sincere condolense.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##x##imported-end##

“ Megann, we have only known each other for a short time, but right away I knew, we would be the best of friends. Darryl and I, are so happy you brought your mom to our home Christmas Eve, because her beautiful smile will forever be in our hearts. We are here for you. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Matthew 5:8##imported-begin##Chantal Graham##imported-end##

“ In the Scriptures, death is cearly explained. Furthermore, the Bible not only reveals why we die but also explains the condition of the dead and offers hope for our deceased loved ones. Finally, it speaks of a mementous time when it will be possible to report: "Death is swallowed up forever.--- 1 Corinthians 15:54. To the Gibson family and friends, I offer my heartfelt Sympayhy.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
