“ To my brother-in-law Derek sorry for your loss as you know I did not know Tonya personally but I do know you two were close and if she was anything like you all I have to say is amazing! God got her now. May your grief be brief and always remember prayer can be your lifeline to peace and contentment whether celebrating life's blessings, sharing sorrows, asking for healing or simply praying about life. Keep God first. My condolence's your sister-in-law Nina###imported-begin##Nina Smith###imported-end##

“ Although your loved one has gone on to be with the Father you all can rest in knowing that heaven has a new angel. Though she will be deeply missed, you can smile daily as you continue to think about the light which shone so brightly through her. Though you will miss her with each passing day, please know she is in a better place. Each time you think of your loved one please remember all the good times and laughs you all shared with one another. Wrap your arms around Christ and His love and all times thank Him. Rejoice and praise Him for the borrowed time He has allowed you to spend with your loved one.

With deepest sympathy,

“ To my dear brother Derek and family of Iris. There are no words to express my condolences for your loss. Just take comfort in knowing that Iris is in the presence of Almighty God...and in His presence there is fullness of joy. In His presence there is healing. In His presence there is wholeness. No more suffering...no more pain. May the blessings of Almighty God descend upon you and your family and remain with you forever.

“ Jesus, You have come to heal the brokenhearted. It is in the name of Jesus that You, Father God, comfort my Mom (Connie), Pop (Cam), my husband Derek and the rest of my brothers because You have loved them and have given them everlasting consolation and good hope through grace.

*Romans 8:38-39. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.##imported-begin##Mrs. Olivia D. “ To the family of Iris... I'm so saddened to hear the news of Iris's passing. Even though I haven't seen or spoken to Iris for several years,I will always remember her infectious laughter and bubbly personality. When we were in school together at St. Als, she was the one to bring us all together for a great time. Sounds silly but I will always think of her and "Spin the Bottle" at our school parties. Wish I could be with you this weekend to celebrate her life. Love and kisses to Isis from Los Angeles! Peter##imported-begin##peter grisdela##imported-end##

“ " When I Must Leave "

*When I must leave you for a little while.
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears.
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
and for my sake and in my name live on and do allthings the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days.
but fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheers.
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never, be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.
God Bless the Martin Family###imported-begin##Edna

“ I want to offer my deepest condolences to the Martin family on Iris' passing from life to life. I knew Iris from high school as a close friend of my brother. She had such a bubbly personality and was always able to make you smile. I still remember her on the porch on Hartwell. Iris' light shone brightly and I will never forget her. RIP, dear sister.##imported-begin##Vickie Williams##imported-end##

“ Iris was one of the pivotal players in high school which was the only time I knew her. I thought about her quite often due to one conversation we were both involved in. She was a beautiful woman inside and out. And now "...there will be no more tears..." May the Martin family take comfort in knowing that her life has only now just begun, Praise and Glory to Him who knows her the best and loved her before time began.##imported-begin##Christine Lousias##imported-end##

“ Tonya, You came to us an angel. Sent from God above he sent you here, so special with a heart filled with his love. You returned to your creator much too soon we all might say. You go back to the Master leaving sadden hearts today. God, he knew your purpose and the job you were sent to do. We all love you so much because God made you to be you. You have brought substance to my life and made it more beautiful. You will be missed but never forgotten. RIP my angel..Until we meet again.. I love you.##imported-begin##Carol Martin##imported-end##

“ To my family, the Martins, I offer my heartfelt condolences, love and support at one of your darkest hours. Iris was the best daughter, sister, aunt and friend anyone could have.

I will forever miss her smile, her laugh and her ability to always make us feel better when times were hard. She would want us to mourn, but not for long. She would rather we smile, not cry, remembering the good times and that she loved us all. May God comfort you and bring you strength until that day.##imported-begin##Tracey Mann##imported-end##

“ I send my heartfelt condolense to the Martin family. Nothing words can say, nothing a friend could do, could make up for the passing of one so dear to you. But it may bring some measure of comfort and relief to know that sympathetic thoughts are with you in your grief. May the comfort of Jehovah and his son Jesus, bring peace to your hearts now and through the days ahead. May your tears of sadness turn to smiles as you remember the times shared with her. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##
