“ Monica,
You have my continued prayers and support. I hope the poem listed below by Bernice W. Wilson will give you some comfort and peace. May God bless you and your family during this difficult time.

LOVE ETERNAL

*In death there is beauty
We will sleep like angels
With the tranquility of innocence*

*Death will not conquer our love
As we are bounded by memories,
And our love will flourish*

*Death is our sadness
For I will long for your flesh,
But our journeys will not be far apart*

*Death is our sanctuary
From the woes of life;
In death we will find peace*

*Death brings us unwavering hope
For the time of resurrection;
In death we will find love eternal.##imported-begin##Norma

“ With Heartfelt Sympathy

*May it console you to know others care.
Think of you warmly, and in every prayer. Ask God to bless you with courage to bear the sorrow that now fills your hearts.*

“ I might be a guess to others, but definitely not to my grandma. I always visited my grandma. Always made sure she was all right. I love grandma and always will. I have no regrets because she knew how I felt about something's, but most importantly she knew I was there for her.

“ I met Jeanette through her daughter Monica. Then I met more of her sons and daughters. Her sprit lives in them and reflects her fun loving approach to life. Her joy and laughter, will be missed by so many, but not forgotten. I think of her and remember how she made me laugh. Let her laughter stay in your hearts. Remember her love and joy not her pain, because her pain is no more. May God comfort you all and keep you strong.

Love to the Family,
