“ Jereshia: Like most, I lost my breath when I found out you had left us. Your spirit and generosity will live long and not be forgotten by those who have known you. Your son is the sparkle of your eye and demonstrates the same energy and enthusiasm. You will not be forgotten. I am glad to have known such a compassionate soul as yours and find peace knowing that you are among the angels. You will make an excellent guardian angel. Your family will find solace in the knowledge that your spirit will never die and your life has made a lasting impression on us all. Rest in peace and watch over us all. I will see you in my dreams. Love you Always, Linda.###imported-begin###Linda Harenda Wright###imported-end###

“ My breath was taken when I got the news. It is true that the good die young. You have left a legacy of calm, generasity and joy. You son embodies the essence of you. There is no doubt you will be missed and surely you have gone on to better things. We are all just a little better for having known your kind soul. You will make the best guardian angel and for that reason, I know you will always be there. You will be missed but never forgotten. Hold your family close as they try to heal from this unexpected sorrow. I will see you in my dreams. Love you always, Linda.###imported-begin##Linda Harenda Wright###imported-end##

“ I will never get over your unannounced departure, you are my family, and your presence will be greatly missed but never, never forgotten. How can I cope?? You know it will be hard for me. I will miss your voice, laughter, smile, and your arranging the family gatherings. I know that you are in the presence of other family that has passed on. That is the only thing that gives me some comfort. Remember I love you forever and ever and hope to see you in heaven one day. Love your sister/friend/relative. Always Vickie (or Victoria) as you liked to be called.###imported-begin##Vickie Boyd-Hampton###imported-end##
