“ *It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the West family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##

“ My family and I were so saddened to hear about Jessica's death. My parents have been going to CVS for years for their prescriptions and Jessica took care of them and became friends with them. They looked forward to seeing and talking to her every week. I did get a chance to meet her not too long ago at the new location and she fondly shared some warm and funny stories about my parents, especially my father, he did take a liking to Jessica and will miss her smiling face. Our prayers go out to her family in their time of need.

“ i sincerely offer my prayers to the family of Ms. West. I knew her over the years as an employee in the pharmacy of CVS!!! we would often talk as she prepared my prescriptions and we became very friendly. To the family I know this is so very hard and very shocking. Psalm 121 says " I will lift up mine eyes onto the hills from whence cometh my help, for my help cometh from the Lord." May God be with you during these heartbreaking time, but please remember that God does care and will help and guide you! May God bless and keep you !!!###imported-begin##Zelma Baker##imported-end##
