“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Remember the words of our Lord Jesus Christ who promised hope for the future of our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death; "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." John 5:28, 29

You can have confidence in the word of God. The Bible speaks of a resurrection. Because you have confidence in that resurrection your sorrow will not be unrelenting. Rather, you will draw close to God in prayer, and take comfort in the promise that "He (God) himself will sustain you." Psalms 55:22.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Tookes family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To Sam, Mrs. Maxwell. Lamonique and the rest of the Tookes family. I extend my love and condolences to you and your family in the loss of your aunt, sister and dear friend. Look to God and allow him to bring the comfort to you that's needed at this time. You are in my prayers and brighter days are ahead. Please know that Earth has no sorrow that "Heaven" cannot heal.##imported-begin##Robin Bailey##imported-end##
